

And they that shall be of thee shall build the old waste places: thou shalt raise up the foundations of many generations; and thou shalt be called, The repairer of the breach, The restorer of paths to dwell in.

Isaiah 58:12

Great is the Lord and greatly to be praised; and his greatness is unsearchable. Psalm 145:3

This last month has been full of the Lord's blessings. Again, many people made decisions for the Lord about their hurts, anger and sin that resulted from it. While at the New Durham Baptist Church in North Bergen, NJ, the Lord moved greatly with conviction. That morning three people trusted Christ as Saviour: one being a woman, that was so broken from hurt, that in weeping trusted Christ and shortly after that, her daughter did the same. We were invited to stay for the evening services and saw God continue to do a work in lives and homes.

Everywhere that we go, we meet people who are hurting and have tried every means for resolving their life's problems and have come up empty. Psychology, self help, mood altering drugs and even trying to push the problem away are useless. Problems in life must be dealt with in God's way. We are excited that the Lord is using us to deliver his solution and message of hope. Your prayers are greatly appreciated as you help and co-labor with us.

The following are quotes, from people in Christian work, about what the ministry of Rapha House is doing. Praise be to God and thank you for your prayers and help.

Anger: the source, results and dealing with it

That was probably the most practical message I have ever heard. Pastor Phil Erickson, Jersey Shore Baptist

Maranatha Baptist Church – Phila, PA

That message was either the best or one of the top three messages ever preached from this pulpit.

Pastor Brian Korner, Grace Ind. Baptist

That message hit

everybody. Pastor Herb Busick, Antrim Faith Baptist

That message revealed some things in my heart that I didn't know were there.

Pastor Matt Schwender, Bible Baptist

That message helped me. I think it hit all of us.

Pastor Doug Holley, Mabscott Christian Baptist

We had people go forward who haven't gone forward in the two years that we've been here.

Pastor Frank Cuzzo's wife, New Durham Baptist

That was right on the money. You don't know how much you hit the nail right on the head.

Pastor Dominic Pennnachietti's wife, Bethel Baptist

Prayer

...The effectual fervent prayer of a righteous man availeth much.

James 5:16

1. Finances for the building: money for the building is still coming in, but it has slowed down. Please pray that the Lord would lead pastors to do something special for this need and that he would also speak to individuals about investing in this much needed ministry. Everywhere we go, people tell us how much this ministry is needed. We need for people to act now.

2. Conferences: our desire is to hold conferences in churches so that we may accomplish a greater work in the lives of God's people than what we are seeing in only one day meetings. Many people are dealing with deep seated problems that cannot be dealt with in one message.

3. Multiple CD duplicator: each week, I sit in front of a computer and duplicate CDs one-at-a-time. We distributed 582 messages in Sept. and Oct. This added up to a great deal of time.

4. Patti Tomlinson and her baby.

The baby has an extra chromosome which caused doctors to suspect that she was not supposed to live. She is on a feeding tube and greatly needs our prayers.
